About Me

A developer who loves building clean, scalable web applications.

I'm Shahsawar Khan, a BS Computer Software graduate from Abdul Wali Khan University, Mardan. My journey started with plain HTML and CSS, and has grown into full-stack Laravel development with a strong focus on clean code and good user experience.

Currently I work as a Computer Science Teacher at Al Alameen Public School, Mardan. Teaching keeps my fundamentals sharp and helps me explain technical concepts clearly.
